Dear Stan:

I must admit that your letter was warmly received. I have taken the liberty of sending a copy to the Joint Staff, and [redacted] and [redacted]. I hope this clears the air. As you mentioned to me, 30 yrs. ago, [redacted] is one of the outstanding men of my acquaintance - and I have recommended him as Sec'y of State. Since he is not a political animal, you'd make a great pair.
